WHEREAS, the State of South Dakota is firmly committed to giving every child an equal opportunity in life through equal opportunities in education, and,

WHEREAS, the State of South Dakota recognizes that its basic resource is to be found in the young people of the State; and,

WHEREAS, educational research indicates the need for early intervention in cases of cultural, educational, handicapping and social differences; and,

WHEREAS, the State of South Dakota is firmly committed to providing the aforementioned opportunities to youngsters:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 16-22, 1971, as in South Dakota, and urge all citizens of our State to recognize the importance of providing equal educational opportunities for all children and to work with local educational agencies and interested groups in providing the support necessary to accomplish these ends.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 11th day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-one.
